OFFICE NOTE.

Subject.
In re filling up of the vacant post of Sreepada in the Sri Sangadhareswaraswami temple at Sreerangapatana

LAST REFERENCE:—

Letter No. 220 dated 23rd February 1904 from the Dy Commr. Mysore District.

Narasamma, Baravardar of Sreepada" post in the Sri Sangadhareswaraswami temple at Sreerangapatana on pay Rs 1-8-0 per mensem was reported to have died in Nov:- 1902 leaving no issues - male or female. The Dy Commr. recommended the vacant post being conferred on one Krishna Jois son of the deceased's brother-in-law on the score of his having performed her obsequies, but stated that the Baravard may be made in his name, the duties being performed by one Nanjundayya as his Gumasta, Krishna Jois being himself unable to attend to the duties on account of his having two other appointments. From the records it was observed that Krishna Jois was getting Rs 15-8-0 per month for 4 other appointments in the temple & one in the Chatram. In the interests of the temple service enquiry was made of the Dy Comm: as to whether it was not desirable to appoint some other person preferably Nanjundayya who was actually doing duties of the post & as to whether Nanjundayya was a relation of the deceased Baravardar

The Dy Comm: now recommends that the Baraward may be made in the name of Annapoornamma wife of Krishna Jois, the work being carried out by Nanjundaya as Gumasta, and requests sanction thereto. From the Amildar's report no 56 it is observed that Nanjundaya bears no relation-ship to the deceased.
